Editorial

Greeting to the readers for healthy and happy new Year-2021

In this edition, the first article is a followup study of body composition of athletes with Maltron Bioscan 902-Z.

The second article is an insight into recent advances in Sports Biomechanics.

In the third article there is Evaluation & discussion on scores awarded to Gymnasts during domestic & world Gymnastic competition.

In the fourth article, explosive shoulder strength as predictor of women's volleyball playing ability is explored.

Hope these articles will enrich your knowledge with recent trends in sports sciences and contribute to improving your skills.
